

GLOBAL TV CITIZEN JOURNALIST

Self Rules

- The first Rule is to know that there is no one to control you and to take up that job by yourself...
- The next rule is to know the first rule and see that you are in charge of your portfolio...
- The Third Rule is to share your ideas with other CJs and Editors so that you shall be supported with the Maximum Inputs...
- The Last Rule is to work until your efforts work as you had envisioned at the start of the work...

Rules for Citizen Journalist

Role and Rules go hand-in-hand. If you wish to enhance your Role in Global TV, you need to practice more Rules that are supportive for your career growth. We do not impose any rules to you. Rules are for betterment of performance and since we have no target set for you, we need not assign as many rules also to you.

We would like to offer you a centralized Editorial Desk with Visionaries at Advisory Positions who are available to give you directions and guidelines as and when sought for.

We also shall provide you experts to help you at all stages of your production process. High-End Video Editors, Script Writers, Screen Play Makers, Directors, Advisers are all available for you on call. You should identify the front end support at your location like Local Video Editors, Shooting Team, Anchors, Content Writers, Coordinators etc.

It is suggested that you should identify people who are already in the industry to provide you the required support on a Revenue Sharing Basis...

Warm Regards
