Rules for Institutional Journalist

There are no specific rules attached to Global Media Centers (GMC). You become a Channel Partner with Global TV by opening up a Media Center at your institution. Global TV will telecast your productions free of cost. Global TV Personnel will give you all support and guidance including training your people on an Expenses Refund Basis. There are no prefixed criteria for this.

It all depends on how you think Media is important in the society and also about your role as a responsible Citizen of a Nation. Level of operation and activities are all depend on the initiatives taken by you or the people you assign the responsibility at your GMC.

You can also become a sponsor for Global TV Channels. In such cases, you will get an Advertisement free of charge with all every broadcast carried from your GMC. Operation of the GMC is fully at your control and you will be free to decide the broadcast content within the framework of True Journalism. Global TV Channels shall also be utilized for the promotion of your institution and programs without any additional payment.

Warm Regards
